

NÚRIA TEJEDOR

Núria Tejedor is a professional dancer and a teacher for classic, contemporary and jazz dance. She studied in the “Conservatorio del Liceo” and the “Instituto del Teatro de Barcelona” and was taught at the “Mudra” School in Brussel led by Maurice Béjart.

She travelled Europe and America, dancing in different dance companies, like the “Ballet Contemporani de Barcelona”, “Compañía Ramón Solé”, “Acord” or “El Gran Teatro del Liceo”..

She collaborated as well with different visual arts artists and contemporary musicians. As a dancer and choreograph she participated in movies like “Tic Tac” or “El Coronel Macià”, etc. and in different TV programs.

Between 1985 and 2002 she managed her own dance studio working with international trainers.

Since 2002 she leads different choreographies and other directions among which stand out the “Cabalgata de Reyes” (Parade of The Holy Trinity in Barcelona), “Carnival Parades”, for the “Olympic Games”, Barcelona’s Patroness Celebration, the “Festes de la Mercè”, the one of “El Món Llibre”, in Barcelona’s Football Stadium, the “Camp Nou”, the “Salón del automóvil of París”, the Parade of “The Holy Trinity in Qatar”, etc...

Since 2003 she works as a casting assistant with Núria Rodríguez
